

Important Information Regarding:

Air Zimbabwe

Issued: 28th February 2012

Applies to Options policies

The following information was published on the 27th of February 2012:

"Zimbabwe's national airline has suspended all its flights indefinitely, after the latest revival effort collapsed this week, the firm's chief executive said on Friday.

"I can confirm all flights are suspended. We are grounded indefinitely," Air Zimbabwe chief executive Innocent Mavhunga told AFP.

The airline had hoped to return to the skies to this week, after its pilots walked off the job last year, saying their wages had not been paid."

Please also note that exclusion 2 under Section 1 – Travel Services Provider Insolvency, of our Options Policy states:

We Will Not Pay For:

2. Insolvency of a Travel Services Provider if at the Relevant Time, the Travel Services Provider was Insolvent or a reasonable person would have reason to expect the Travel Services Provider might become Insolvent.

"Relevant Time" in respect of:

- a) Single Trip policies means the issue date of the policy.
- b) Annual Multi-Trip means the first time at which any part of the relevant trip is paid for or the time at which the policy is issued, whichever occurs last.

As the airline is now facing provisional liquidation proceedings, cover under the Insolvency benefit for any policy purchased on 28/2/2012 or after has been withdrawn.

ADDITIONAL ACCOMMODATION AND TRANSPORT EXPENSES FOR POLICY HOLDERS THAT HAVE ALREADY COMMENCED THEIR JOURNEY

There is provision to claim reasonable Additional Accommodation or Transport Expenses if you were booked on a Air Zimbabwe flight that has been cancelled due to insolvency.

We will also pay the reasonable Additional Accommodation and Transport costs you incur to return to your home in New Zealand if you were booked on a Air Zimbabwe flight that has been cancelled due to insolvency.

Please note that the cover is limited to the same or similar standard of accommodation or transport that you had originally booked, and we will not pay more for re-arranging any part of your journey than the non refundable costs for cancelling that part of your journey.

AMENDMENT OR CANCELLATION COSTS FOR POLICY HOLDERS THAT HAVE NOT YET COMMENCED THEIR JOURNEY

There is provision to claim for Amendment or Cancellation costs for the part of your journey that has been directly affected due to the insolvency of Air Zimbabwe.

The policy will provide coverage for amendment costs where the cost of altering/deferring is less than the cost of cancellation charges for the part of a customer's trip which has been affected. If the cost of altering/deferring is not less than the non-refundable value of the part of the customer's trip which has been affected, then the policy will provide coverage for this non-refundable unused portion.

No cover will be provided for the utilised portion of a customer's travel and accommodation expenses.

Corporate and Annual Multi-Trip Policies

The above advice also applies to Corporate and Annual Multi-Trip policies, however please note there is an additional requirement that your original travel arrangements must have been booked prior to the 28th of February 2012.

Customers stuck overseas who cannot return home

For customers who hold a Travelsure policy issued prior to the 28th of February 2012 and cannot return home on their original return date due to the insolvency of Air Zimbabwe, their policy will automatically extend free of charge to allow them to return by the quickest and most direct route.

As this extension is automatic, customers and agents do not need to do anything.

IMPORTANT - GENERAL ADVICE

This information must be read in conjunction with the Travelsure Policy Wording as certain restrictions and exclusions apply.

These exclusions and restrictions are detailed in the Travelsure Wording and in particular we draw your attention to "The Benefits" and "General Exclusions" sections of the wording.
